

TAYLOR TWELLMAN

Newton Youth Soccer

Twellman
SOCCER

A FEW FUN FACTS ABOUT TAYLOR TWELLMAN

twellmansoccer.com

Fun Facts:

CAREER:

Scored 100 league goals in 174 games with the New England Revolution

Currently on the ballot for the U.S. Soccer Hall of Fame

2005 MLS MVP among many awards

BIRTHDATE:

He's a leap year baby

February 29, 1980 in Minneapolis, MN

FAVORITE RESTAURANT WITH

FAMILY: O'Hara's with family

FAVORITE FOOD:

Taylor LOVES to eat, especially his momma's cooking!

GRADE SCHOOL:

St. Joseph in St. Louis, MO

Played CYC sports at St. Joseph

HIGH SCHOOL:

St. Louis University High School

Lettered in soccer, baseball, basketball and football (kicker)

COLLEGE: Soccer and Baseball

University of Maryland

PETS:

Lola and Mona

PRE-SEASON TRAINING WITH TAYLOR TWELLMAN

Dates: August 31, Sept 1,2,3

Times: 9-2 p.m. Costs: $275 per player

Location: Newton Fields TBD

OUR PASSION OUR FOCUS OUR APPROACH

Improving each and every player

Developing a level of comfort with the ball

Identifying and Improving each players skill level and technique (dribbling, striking the ball, passing, finishing, crossing, turning, etc.)

Building Confidence in One v One situations

Understanding all positions and positional play

Encouraging proper warm-up and cool down activities

Enhancing each players love for this great game.

Register Today

www.newtonsoccer.org

The Twellman Family are full of good athletic genes. Taylor's father, Tim, played 10 years of professional soccer.

His brother, James, played professional soccer. His sister, Alex, played college soccer @St. Louis U. His three uncles played soccer or baseball professionally. His grandfather was a major league baseball outfielder for five teams and his uncle Jay is a professional golfer.

Taylor Twellman retired from soccer on November 3, 2010 at the age of 30 due to multiple concussions.

You'll find Taylor these days as a ESPN Soccer Analyst for MLS and advocating awareness for the ThinkTaylor Foundation.